Officer Murray was assigned to a new position in her Department in 2016 called the Community Relations Officer.

She took the initiative to create the objectives and responsibilities of this position on her own.

She greatly increased police involvement in her community, including participation in the Minority Relations Committee, the Youth Coalition for Lower Merion, the Race for Peace Committee, and the Lower Merion School District’s School & Safety Committee.

Officer Murray makes frequent visits to schools, libraries, camps, and various sports programs to promote youth engagement and present safety programs to children.
