Gives her time to those in need

- Volunteers at Exceptional Care for Children (ECC), a pediatric skilled nursing facility for seriously ill young people, many of whom cannot breathe on their own, eat solid food, walk or talk

- Considers these children to be “superheroes” and describes her time at ECC as “just like hanging out with friends”

- Has spent over four hundred hours interacting with the students at ECC

- Also volunteers at many other organizations, making her a superhero herself!
