These officers were honored for taking the initiative to coordinate various community projects in addition to their regular patrol duties.

Officer Smith organized a large community event in an area which is historically a hot spot for crime, and crime is now down in this area.

Officers Kozlowski and McAllister coordinated a back-to-school “Shop with a Cop” event at a local “Five Below” and took 20 kids from a local homeless shelter shopping.

Officers Seawright and Decky organized free SAT prep classes for students in their district. Officer Seawright also coordinated a “Dinner at the Zoo” for less fortunate families.
