SAKITA TINSLEY

10th through 12th Grade English Teacher
North Penn High School, Landsdale, PA

Provides overwhelming support for her students

- Received 8 nominations; 7 of them from students!
- Is one of only two teachers who offers a course on “Multicultural Voices,” where students learn about their own culture, as well as the culture of others.
- Teaches many students who select her course solely because they want her as their teacher. Also, helps her students with difficulties they are having in other classes.
- Serves as the teaching advisor for the African American Club and the Muslim Student Association, and organized a schoolwide initiative called “Authentic Conversations About Race,” where students engage in effective and open discussions.
