These members of the Upper Darby Police Department performed life saving acts during a period of torrential rain and flash floods.

Officers Redheffer and Hall moved through the fast moving flood and smashed out a window of a trapped car for the occupants to escape.

Lieutenant Oreskovich and Officer Bennett rescued a grandmother and her 9 year granddaughter just as their minivan was about to sink under the water.

Officer Shephard and Lieutenant Oreskovich tied bed sheets together and created a human chain to rescue those left trapped on the roof of a vehicle.
