Thanks for enjoying this week’s reading of “One” by Kathryn Otoshi!
This colorful story reminds us all that if something is not right, we should stand UP!

You can be the One!
Can you think of a time when YOU stood up for someone else?
Draw/Tell your story using the “1” outline on the next page!
If you are having trouble, draw a time when you WILL stand up in the future!

It is never too late to stand up!

When you are finished, hang up your drawing so you always remember to stand up just like One!

Don’t forget to share your work with us! @nationallibertymuseum nlmathome
